

Community Short Breaks: Families
STAYING SAFE—KEEPING CONNECTED
Virtual Activities—Edition 1

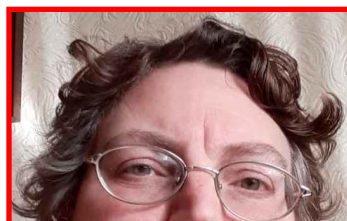

So here I am working at home in lockdown. I don't think my hair looks too bad yet. I've had to cut my fringe a couple of times but I'll probably look like a spaniel by the time lockdown is over!!

How's your 'barnet' doing? I cut my son's hair and apparently he's thinking of suing!

My husband says he'd rather cut his own hair with the lawnmower than let me at it. I'm not sure if I can persuade Colleen to share a photo of her current hairstyle but I'm going to ask. Anyone else want to share? Send us your hairstyles—we won't put names to them honest!!

Seriously though—please continue to stick to the Government guidelines and stay at home.

Guess who?

SPOT 5 DIFFERENCES!

Why not colour the pictures in when you've found all 5 differences?

Can you write a Japanese Haiku poem?

A Haiku poem has only 3 lines. To be a proper Haiku

Line 1 has 5 syllables

Line 2 has 7 syllables

Line 3 has 5 syllables

Here's an example:

'The bee flies quickly
It turns around and stings me
Then falls to the ground'

If it's hard to follow the 5—7 –5 rule why not write a 3 line poem anyway and email it to us or put them on our Facebook page?

Easter Egg Competition

We had great fun with this. Thank you to everyone who entered and to everyone who has got in touch to say their gift has arrived.

Here's Jack with his.

Storytelling Sessions

Children can still enjoy popular stories and poems at home thanks to the online story telling session arranged with the Durham County

Council libraries.

Every Thursday at 2pm on Durham County Council's YouTube Channel will be a classic children's story for you to enjoy. Previous stories are 'Chicken Licken' and 'The Owl and Pussycat' and the latest video is 'The Three Bears', read by Kitchen Zoo.

Search for County Durham Youtube channel or go to our website www.dadlg.org —click into Twitter  and click on the link in the tweet.

Thank you Helga from Colour Buzz!

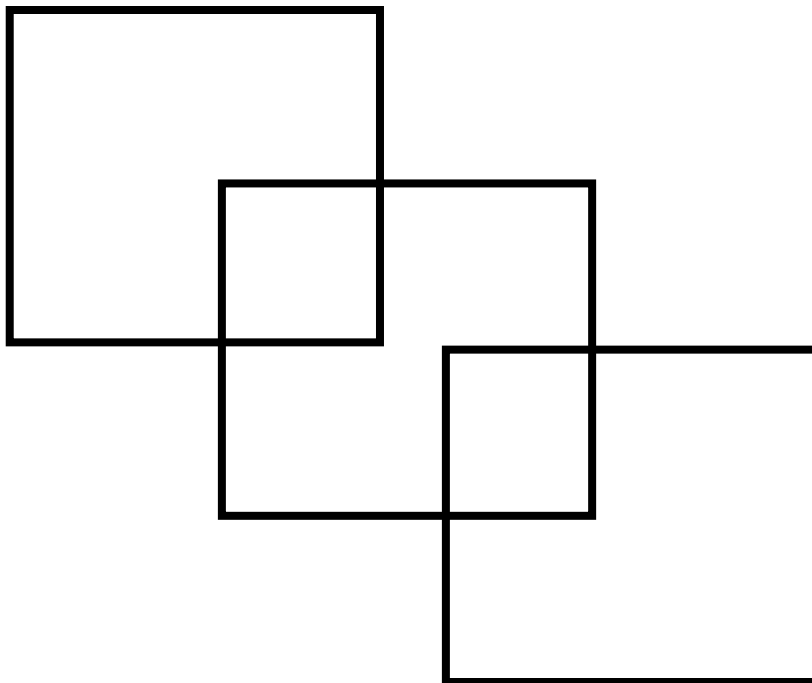

Helga put the Easter activities together for you and some craft activities using cereal boxes and toilet roll tubes. You can find these on our Facebook page.
